Point of view:

Watch the clip again and pause at three moments of significance for the boy (your choice). For each event, write brief explanation of what is happening in that moment and then complete the speech bubble next to each with what you think the boy would say if given the chance to share his thoughts.

A large, light grey speech bubble with a blue outline and rounded corners. It has a tail pointing towards the boy character.A large, light grey speech bubble with a blue outline and rounded corners.
