E-safety workshop

Thank you to those parents who were able to attend the E-safety workshop. The key messages from the workshop were to highlight the potential dangers for pupils online, the importance of parental filters and controls at home and to ensure a healthy dialogue with children about using the Internet.

Please find a copy of the presentation here: Parent Workshop Presentation.

A thank you from Porchlight:

Thank you so much for your recent gift in response to our urgent winter appeal. Because of you, our teams can continue to reach people sleeping rough in our towns and cities. They can help people move into safe and secure housing, supported by staff who understand what they need to rebuild their lives and look forward to the future. Your gift will help us to change the lives of homeless people in Kent, and into the future. Thank you. Best wishes Emma Bowles, Individual Giving Manager, Porchlight

* VENUS

NEPTUNE

Naughty Bus is on the loose! Venus class had fun making their Naughty Buses cause mischief around the school. They produced some super writing from it

As part of the computing curriculum, Neptune Class have been creating Book trailers. We chose picture books and, using imovie created trailers, we had to add and edit the media and use audio. It was great fun and we learnt lots of new skills.

Class News

In PE, we have been using our balancing skills to walk across, over and under the apparatus. Last week. Coach Harry got out the very, very tall A frame which the children had to climb over - not as easy as you think! They showed great courage attempting to get over it and were very proud of themselves.

In Jupiter, we have been studying Life Cycles in Science. We have learnt about the life cycle of: mammals; plants, including the importance of pollination; and the metamorphosis process that some insects and amphibians go through. Did you know that there are 3 groups of mammals: placentals, monotremes and marsupials?
